MISS HEANEY respectfully informs parents that the exercises of her school will be resumed on the first Monday of September ensuing, for the instruction of young ladies in the English and French languages, vocal and instrumental music, landscape and portrait drawing and painting The salubrity and excellence of this location, and advantages of the vicinity, encourage much hope of the liberal support of parents. In her task, aiming to promote the best individual interests of her pupils, the number will be limited for faithful instruction by herself as principal; and whatever aid may be desired will be given by assistant instructresses; conforming in her charge to the system and regulations prescribed by mothers in approved education of daughters at home.

Vocal music and dancing, as recreations, at no extra charge, will be directed personally by herself, to realize all esteemed acquirements and improvement of deportment, exempt from the disadvantages for such youth attending public tuition and practice.

The approval of parents and friends interested in Miss Heaney's earliest and continued engagements may be learned from many well-known individuals.

The hernial truss, invented by Mr. C. C. tients. The infrmary has been divided in such manner as to separate the several classes of patients, viz: white and colored, male and female; and, from its position and regulations, proffers retirement and privacy as far as can be wished.

Two resident physicians are in constant attendance, and the infirmary is visited daily at 11 o'clock, a. m., by the attending physician and surgeon, who also devote as much time as in precessory for one also devote as much time as is necessary for pre-scriptions, operations, and dispensing of medicines for all such dispensary patients as may be in wait-ing. Besides these attendants, the directors have been fortunate in securing the services of the SIS-TERS OF CHARITY, who reside in the infirmary, conduct its affairs, and give their undivided atten-tion to the nursing and comforts of the sick.

Private patients may enter the infirmary under the special care of any one of its directors, but other-wise will comply with the regulations of the institu-

It is to be regretted that the directors have been unable to carry into effect the great design of this tristiution, as, from the heavy expenses incurred, they cannot extend their charities to the poor as far as they could wish. Thus far the receipts from patients have not met the current expenses; hence but few charity patients have been or can be received, unless aid be given by our corporation and citizens. It is gratifying, however, to the directors to have had it in their power to serve the cause of humanity through their dispensary arrangement, by which hundreds of poor, sick, and disabled have had dispensed to them medicines, with medical and surgical advice.

All classes of diseases will be admitted into the infirmary, except smallpox and maniaes. For It is to be regretted that the directors have been

A N Invigorating and Healthful Sum-mer Medicine, Sanctioned and Pa-tronised by the most emisent of the medical pro-By merely pouring water on a tea-spoon full of this aperient, a cooling and grateful effervescing beverage is obtained resembling soda water to the taste, and imparting to the constitution all the bene-fits of the celebrated Seltzer waters of Germany.

Medical men of eminence commend in the highest terms the preparation known as Tarrant's Effervescent Seltzer Aperient. Its success in bilious affections, dyspepsia or indigestion, heartburn, febrile disorders, gout, acidity of the stomach, &c., and all the various complaints caused by the sudden changes of temperature so usual in warm latitudes, has been so great that it has been highly recommended, and has, in consequence, been generally prescribed; and the most satisfactory results have invariably followed. In a torpid state of the liver its action upon the system has been so beneficial that its energies have been revived and its healthy tone restored.

No preparation has ever been introduced to the

No preparation has ever been introduced to the notice of the medical profession or public which has given such universal satisfaction as Tarrant's Effer-vescent Seltzer Aperient. It should be freely used vescent Seltzer Aperient. It should be freely used at this season as a preventative and dispeller of those sick headaches, languor of the body, loss of appetite, acidity of the stomach, &c., the forerunners of bilious or febrile attacks. A ten-spoon full taken regularly every morning never interferes with the avocations of the day, and invariably creates an elasticity of mind and flow of spirits which gives a zest to every enjoyment.
